

Paul Goulding KC

“Paul is the acknowledged master in employee competition and restrictive covenant disputes – his knowledge of the law is unparalleled and he is a tactical wizard. He is a forensic and persuasive advocate and has the respect of the court.”

– LEGAL 500, 2024

Year of call: 1984
Appointed to silk: 2000
Degree: MA (Oxon, First Class), BCL (Oxon)

Paul is widely recognised as one of the top silks in employment law. He regularly appears in the High Court, Employment Tribunal, the appellate courts and arbitrations (both as arbitrator and advocate). He has been involved in many of the leading cases involving restrictive covenants and team moves, whistleblowing, discrimination, employment status and bonus claims. He recently successfully defended a global bank in the leading case on an employer's duty of care and duty to indemnify an employee.

Much of Paul's practice concerns disputes involving financial institutions and professional service firms, often with a regulatory dimension, as well as cross-border disputes. He has appeared in cases arising out of regulatory investigations into LIBOR, FX and sanctions breaches.

Paul is also highly experienced in sports law, and is a member of the Football Association's Judicial Disputes Panel. Paul was appointed to the Sports Resolutions Panel for 2024-2027.

Paul won the Employment Silk of the Year 2023 at the Chambers & Partners Bar Awards and was nominated for Senior Counsel of the Year 2023 at the International Employment Lawyer Awards.

Paul is highly recommended in both of the leading independent legal directories, Legal 500 and Chambers and Partners, in which he is ranked as a 'Star Individual' for Employment Law.

Recent key quotes include:

- "Paul is the acknowledged master in employee competition and restrictive covenant disputes – his knowledge of the law is unparalleled and he is a tactical wizard. He is a forensic and persuasive advocate and has the respect of the court." - Legal 500, 2024
- "He combines an enviable grasp of the detail with excellent tactical nous and very strong advocacy." - Chambers UK, 2023

Previous quotes include:

- "He's absolutely phenomenal." - Chambers UK
- "He is also meticulous in his preparation for trial – a true professional." - Legal 500
- "He has a fantastic reputation and is a man of formidable expertise." - Chambers UK

EXPERIENCE

Employment

Paul's pre-eminence in the Employment field is endorsed by his 'star' ranking in Chambers UK for many years. His practice covers the most demanding cases in this field and the extensive nature of his practice is demonstrated in the more detailed breakdown given in the sections below, Employee Competition, Whistleblowing, TUPE, Discrimination & Equal Pay, Bonus & Remuneration, and Employee Status & Contracts. A small sample of cases from his entire practice is given here.

"Paul is an undisputed leader in business protection work. He takes a very detailed approach, and delivers the highest quality of interrogation and work to ensure that clients are placed in the best possible position."

Cases

Benyatov v Credit Suisse Securities (Europe) Limited

[2023] EWCA Civ 140; [2023] ICR 534; [2023] IRLR 381; [2022] EWHC 135 (QB), [2022] 4 WLR 54

Acted for Credit Suisse in successfully defending a former employee's claim for over $86m loss of earnings after his conviction in Romania following his work on privatisation of a utility company. Listed as one of The Lawyer's Top 20 Cases of 2020, the Court held that (1) the employer did not owe the employee an implied contractual duty to indemnify him against loss of earnings arising from the performance of his duties (the indemnity claim), and (2) the employer did not owe the employee a duty of care not to expose him to the risk of criminal conviction and resulting financial losses in the performance of his duties, and did not breach any such duty of care in any event (the negligence claim). Further, the employee's negligence claim was out of time. In February 2023, the Court of Appeal dismissed the employee's appeal. In July 2023, the Supreme Court dismissed the employee's application for permission to appeal.

Joseph v Deloitte NSE LLP

[2020] EWCA Civ 1457; [2019] EWHC 3354 (QB); [2021] 1 BCLC 325

A limited liability partnership was not obliged to convene a partners' meeting pursuant to a partner's request to do so, as his request fell beyond the time permitted under the LLP agreement and the partnership was entitled to rely on the time limit in the relevant clause. The case raises issues of the interpretation of express terms in an LLP agreement, the implication of implied terms, promissory estoppel, estoppel by representation and estoppel by convention. The Supreme Court dismissed the partner's application for permission to appeal against the Court of Appeal's decision.

Expert witness on bonus discretion

(2020)

Instructed as an expert witness on English law relating to the exercise of a discretion to award a bonus for the purpose of legal proceedings brought against a global bank in the Royal Court of Jersey.

Fahim Imam-Sadeque v BlueBay Asset Management (Services) Ltd

[2013] IRLR 344, [2012] EWHC 3511 (QB)

Acted for the defendant in case in which the High Court decided that (1) the claimant employee acted in repudiatory breach of his employment contract in assisting the set up and launch of a competitive business, assisting in the recruitment of a fellow employee by that business, and disclosing documents to that business; and (2) a condition in a compromise agreement whereby the claimant would be deemed to be a Good Leaver for the purpose of unvested deferred remuneration provided he did not commit a repudiatory breach of his employment contract prior to its termination, was not an unlawful penalty.

Employee Competition

For many years Paul has specialised in the law relating to restrictive covenants, confidentiality, garden leave, and the duties of employees, directors and partners not to compete unfairly. He recently appeared in Imam-Sadeque v BlueBay (a case involving garden leave and team moves), and is currently instructed in Petter v EMC which is due to be heard in the UK Supreme Court in November 2016 (a cross-border dispute involving forfeiture of deferred stock for competition giving rise to proceedings in Massachusetts and England).

Paul is the Editor of the leading textbook Employee Competition: Covenants, Confidentiality, and Garden Leave (3rd ed, 2016), and a contributor to the American Bar Association publication, Restrictive Covenants and Trade Secrets in Employment Law: An International Survey.
